MOVING FORWARD: LEADING FAITHFULLY AND COURAGEOUSLY POST ELECTION

How will we continue to lead faithfully, support one another, proclaim the truth, and navigate the anxieties of our congregations and communities after the election this week? Join us as we reflect together on following Jesus with courage and hopefulness in the days ahead. This week's conversation will be hosted by our TMC staff, including Mark Ramsey, Jennifer Maxell, Adam Mixon, and Adam Borneman.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 2020

2:00 PM ET (11:00 AM PT)

We hope to see you this Wednesday at 2:00 PM ET, as we discuss and discern God's call to lead broadly, deeply, and with vision for the long-term, even as we attend to the pressing needs of our communities. We remain convinced that it's critically important to collaborate, share, and stay connected with one another so, let's come together to discuss and discern what the Spirit is doing.
