What does it take to make a disciple of Jesus? How do we know if we're making disciples of Jesus? When does discipleship begin, and when does discipleship end? Why should a church make discipleship the focus of its life together? Where does discipleship happen in a church?

Join us as we explore those questions and help you design a plan to make more disciples who love like Jesus. Drawing from the gospel of Matthew, we'll develop a paradigm for discipleship in your specific context. Using cutting-edge research on how people change, you'll walk through a process that helps people be with Jesus, become like Jesus, and do what Jesus wants them to do. And you'll do all of this with a set of diverse and gifted partners to help you listen and respond to God. Imagine a church filled with people who love like Jesus.
